What is an RV power inverter?

At their core, power inverters are devices that convert DC (Direct Current) from your RV battery into AC (Alternating Current), the standard form of power for most household appliances. Typically, RV batteries operate on 12V or 24V DC, whereas home appliances require 110V or 220V AC, depending on your location.

What is an RV power converter?

An RV power converter is a device that converts 120-volt AC power from shore power or a generator to 12-volt DC power for your RV's appliances and accessories. It also charges your RV's battery bank. RV power converters work by taking the 120-volt AC power from shore power or a generator and converting it to 12-volt DC power using rectification.
